

Terms and Conditions of the Clare Farm Idea Awards Competition 2009

To qualify for entry, applicants must:

1. Be actively farming or fishing (Single Farm Payment/fishing licence number)
2. Live in Co. Clare.
3. Submit this completed entry form by 5pm Friday 27th November, 2009
4. Be available to attend an interview with our judging panel to discuss your business idea in detail
5. Be available to attend a prize giving awards ceremony.
6. Be agreeable to take part in publicity/media events relating to the competition

Additional Notes

1. Projects will also be eligible to enter the national JFC Innovation Awards
2. Our panel of experts and all competition administrators have signed a confidentiality agreement.
3. Feel free to submit other supporting documentation with your application e.g. Photo's, Planning permission, Financial documentation, etc.
4. Please note that interviewers will discuss all aspects of your business idea with you in detail and it is advisable to have prepared supporting documentation.
5. The judges decision is final. Any attempt by any entrant to influence a member of the judging panel will result in immediate disqualification.
6. Late entries will NOT be accepted.

Declaration: I hereby certify that all the details supplied by me are true to the best of my knowledge. I agree to the terms and conditions of this competition and agree to abide by the decisions of the judging panel in all matters relating to this competition.

Signature:

Date:

Print Signature:

Disclaimer

Entrants are responsible for ensuring that they take all necessary precautions to guard any Intellectual Property. Entrants should contact the administrators of this competition in advance if there are any queries regarding Intellectual Property.

Advice on Completing the Form

If you have any queries about this form please contact any of the following

Rural Development Officers

Gerry McDonagh 086-8544036 and Hilary Gleeson 086-8235598

Enterprise Officer

Mary O'Sullivan on 065-6866800